At the outset of the meeting Chairman welcomed all members of meeting on behalf of the trust and gave a brief introduction about the agenda of the meeting.

The minutes of the last meeting dated 18/02/2021, already circulated among the members is unanimously passed.

The following decisions are taken in the meeting.

1. The Chairman submitted the matter regarding starting of a Nursing College and School of Nursing under the trust as the trust has already established a Medical College and Hospital. The matter is discussed in detail. The members are of the opinion that as the medical college has already granted with permanent recognition by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare Government of India it is the right time for starting nursing college and nursing school. All members are of the opinion to start the same immediately from next academic year. Accordingly it is decided to start a school of Nursing and College of Nursing to start GNM course and B.Sc. Nursing Course from the coming academic year and authorized the Secretary to apply before the Government for NOC, before Kerala Nursing and Midwives Council, Indian Nursing Council and Kerala University of Health Sciences for approval and affiliation.

2. The Secretary submitted before the meeting that huge amounts are pending from students as tuition fees which should be recovered immediately. Otherwise it will create difficulty in the day to day management of the institutions under the trust. Hence it is decided to give strict direction to the head of institutions to collect the same within a time limit.
3. The Secretary submitted that for imparting practical training for B.Pharm students of our institution in our medical college hospital a registration of the Medical College and Hospital with Kerala State Pharmacy Council is required. Accordingly it is decided to apply with Kerala State Pharmacy Council for registration of the Medical College and Hospital.
4. It is resolved to execute Memorandum of Understanding with M/s. Xtream Multimedia Technical Services Pvt Ltd, for conducting of add on courses for students of Arts College.
